

The Reverend Canon Jim and Carole Holbeck

The Reverend Canon Jim Holbeck

Canon, St. Andrew's Cathedral, Sydney, Australia. Leader, The Healing Ministry at St. Andrew's Cathedral (1988-2006)

Dean, St. Peter's Cathedral, New South Wales, Australia (1978-1988)

Rector, St. Bartholomew's, Mt. Gravatt, Queensland, Australia (1972-1978)

Curate, St. Stephen's Coorparoo, Queensland, Australia (1969-1972)

Theological Training, Ridley College, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia (1964-1968)

Industrial Chemist before training for the Priesthood.

Carole Holbeck

Teacher, TAFE (Technical and Further Education), New South Wales (Retired 2006)

Assists Canon Holbeck in every aspect of his ministry, including intercessory prayer and prayer counseling.

They have 3 grown children, Sarah (36), James (34), and David (27). Carole was born in India and moved to Australia when she was 4 years old. Jim was born in Gympie, Queensland, and moved to Ipswich where he later met Carole. They have been married for 42 years.

Canon Holbeck succeeded the Reverend Canon Jim Glennon as the Leader of The Healing Ministry at St. Andrew's, Sydney in 1988. Over the years, he expanded that ministry to include inner healing for those suffering illness as a result of emotional disease. Canon Jim is known internationally for his teaching, preaching, and ministry in the healing gifts of Jesus Christ. Canon Holbeck retired in 2006, but he is still busy in the teaching and healing ministry of the Lord.